

ELMIRA COLLEGE

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

November 20, 2020

Dear EC community,

As we prepare for the upcoming holiday break, please keep the following items in mind.

- Today, Friday, November 20 is the last day of Term I classes. Final exams will be online from November 30-December 5. Classes for Term II are scheduled to begin on Tuesday, January 19.
- Employees traveling for Thanksgiving must abide by NYS's travel advisory. For those who live in Pennsylvania, there are now similar guidelines in place for residents of the Commonwealth. Please keep these in mind as you plan your travel and vacation time. If you have any questions, contact your supervisor.

We are planning for a return to in-person classes in January, and will share information on the College's return-to-campus plan once it is finalized and approved by local and state agencies. The Office of Residence Life will send updated instructions to all residential students about the Term II move-in process as we approach the first day of classes. It is important that students and employees continue to check their email throughout the break, since state and local health guidelines can change quickly.

Students, good luck on your exams, and I wish everyone a safe and healthy holiday season.

Sincerely,

Chuck Lindsay, PhD

President
