

ELMIRA COLLEGE

June 30, 2021

Dear Students,

As a college student, you're making a significant investment in your education. Elmira College is pleased to partner with Liberty Mutual Tuition Insurance to protect that investment. For as little as 1% of your expenses, tuition insurance provides up to 100% reimbursement for tuition, room & board, and mandatory fees paid to Elmira College if a student withdraws from college due to an injury, illness, or mental health condition.¹

All EC students are automatically enrolled into this protection, and the cost of $194 per term is included as a line item on your tuition bill each term (Term I and Term II only).*

However, if you do not wish to enroll, between July 1 and August 29 you can waive your coverage on-line. You must waive coverage prior to the first day of classes by clicking here to opt-out.

For more information on the Liberty Mutual Tuition Insurance program, email school_tuitioninsurance@libertymutual.com.

Sincerely,

Liz

¹Pre-existing physical and mental health conditions are covered provided the student has not received medical care or treatment, nor has experienced symptoms of the condition, within 120 days prior to the purchase date, and during the period between the purchase date and the first day of classes of the covered term. Coverage not available at all colleges and universities. Policy terms and conditions apply. As with all insurance, please review the policy language before purchasing coverage. Coverage provided and underwritten by Liberty Mutual Insurance Company and its affiliates, 175 Berkeley Street, Boston, MA 02116. Learn more about our privacy policy at libertymutual.com/privacy.

*A tuition reimbursement protection fee of 15% of the cost of the insurance has been added to the line item.
